

LEST WE FORGET

In most ceremonies of remembrance there is a reading of an appropriate poem. One traditional recitation on Anzac Day is the Ode.

The Ode comes from For the Fallen, a poem by the English poet and writer Laurence Binyon and was published in London in the Wincing Fan; Poems of the Great War in 1914.

It is traditionally part of ANZAC and Remembrance Day services.

THE ODE

"They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning
We will remember them."
